NMC welcomes Donna Ockenden as Senior Midwifery Advisor

The Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) has appointed Donna Ockenden as a Senior Midwifery Adviser to the chief executive. Donna will continue in her current role as Co-Clinical Director of the Maternity Strategic Clinical Network at NHS England.

NMC Chief Executive and Registrar, Jackie Smith said:

“I am very pleased to welcome Donna to the NMC. We recognise that nurses and midwives like Donna have a massive role to play in the future of regulation and Donna brings with her important experience in maternity services and midwifery.”

Donna Ockenden said:

“I am delighted to have been offered the opportunity to work with the NMC as Senior Midwifery Adviser and I look forward to bringing my experience to the role and working closely with Jackie Smith.”

Note:

The Nursing and Midwifery Council exists to protect the public. They do this by ensuring that only those who meet their requirements are allowed to practise as a nurse or midwife in the UK. They take action if concerns are raised about whether a nurse or midwife is fit to practise.
