Thank you for the generous contribution from you and your department. The Open Day was a great success. This was an opportunity for members of the public to come and see the fantastic new facilities and see examples of the superb services that we provide. Between 300 - 400 visited during the day and countless people stopped on their way out to tell me how much they had enjoyed the day. Thank you for giving up your time, your considerable efforts we very much appreciated.

Thank you for preparing for and leading the recent visit. It went extremely well and the way each discussion / walkabout dovetailed in meant that every part visited simply complimented the other visits.
